WIND, FLOODS IN TEXAS, OKLAHOMA TOLLS 14

SCORES HURT AND ALSO MUCH PROPERTY DAMAGE

TORRENTIAL RAINS FLOOD THE LOWLANDS IN TEXAS

HIGHWAYS AND RAILROADS IN-UNDATED AT MANY PLACES

Dallas, Texas, April 24.—(UP)—Wind and floods in Texas and Oklahoma today had claimed at least 14 lives, caused injuries to a score of persons and resulted in thousands of dollars property damage.

In Texas a toll of 11 was caused by deaths from drowning and from lightning during the past week. Torrential rains have flooded lowlands and resulted in inundation of highways and railroads in parts of the state.

Three persons were killed in a tornado near Durant, Okla., last night. Three others are reported to have died from their injuries and a score were injured in the storm.

3 VILLAGES DAMAGED AT DURANT, OKLAHOMA

Durant, Okla., April 24.—Cutting a swath 2,000 yards wide and about 10 miles long, a cyclone burst through three villages north of here last night.

Reports today were that at least three were killed and at least a score injured.

The twister razed about 30 towns and frame houses, damaged telephone lines and crops.

The tornado struck Fillmore, a small Johnson county village about sundown. It then swept on through the towns of Coleman, Kenefic, Caney and Voca.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Jackson were killed at Voca. Mrs. Tom Gallon was killed at Fillmore.

Unverified reports from Fillmore and Kenefic said three others died of injuries received in the storm.

An accurate check was impossible because many of the injured were not taken to hospitals but were being cared for at farm houses.

Following the tornado, a severe hail, rain and wind storm swept the southeastern section of Oklahoma for more than an hour, making rescue work difficult.

Communication throughout the southeastern section of the state was still disrupted today and only meager information could be obtained.

It was said here the death toll may rise when all reports are in.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING $20,000

St. Paul, April 24.—(UP)—A special grand jury is to be called next week to consider the case of Frank C. Wilbour, charged with embezzling $20,000 from the Austin National bank, United States District Attorney LaFayette French announced today. There are some 20 other cases that could also be brought before the grand jury and it will be asked to consider these after disposing of Wilbour.

MUSSOLINI NOW AT MILAN

Milan, April 24.—(UP)—Premier Mussolini arrived today for a visit of several days during which he will attend the closing ceremony of the international sample fair.

He was met and welcomed by local authorities and afterward motored to the home of Signora Mussolini and their three children. Mussolini will probably remain here until next Wednesday.

SHOT WHEN HE WAS MISTAKEN FOR A BANDIT

St. Paul, April 24.—(UP)—Lavene McClehaney, shot April 3, when mistaken for a bandit by Albert Coates, a friend, is believed dying today at a hospital here. McClehaney's condition was reported satisfactory until this morning when he took a sudden turn for the worse.

BILL TO PUT IN DAM AT CASS LAKE

Washington, April 24.—(UP)—A bill authorizing the secretary of agriculture to take over and construct the J. Neils Lumber Co. dam as the outlet of Cass lake in Minnesota, was reported favorably today by the senate agriculture committee. The bill had already passed the house.

FRESH HOPE IS HELD OUT TO MEN WITH BALD PATES

Chicago, April 24.—(UP)—Fresh hope was held out today to men sensitive to the fact their heads were bald.

A Chinese scientist at the University of Chicago announced before the City club that he had found three experiments on rats that the injection of desiccated thyroid brought about normal growth of hair. Removal of the thyroid glands, on the other hand, caused the rats to lose their hair.

The young scientist, Hui Chun Chan, said he was convinced his experiments opened a way to restore hair growth for men.

TEXTILE STRIKE MAY SWITCH TO A LOCKOUT

BOTANY CO. AT PASSAIC CEASES
TO EMPLOY ANY MORE MEN

REITERATES DETERMINATION
NOT TO DEAL WITH "PRO-FESSIONAL AGITATORS"

Passaic, N. J., April 24.—(UP)—With the Botany Consolidated Mills, one of the largest textile manufacturing units in this area, threatening what amounts to a virtual lockout of its striking employees, prospects for an immediate settlement of the strike are more unfavorable than at any time since it began, 13 weeks ago.

A statement issued by the Botany Co. announced that "so many of its employees had returned that the mills were unable to employ any more." The company reiterated its determination not to deal with the "professional agitators," a phrase aimed at Albert Weisbord, alleged communist leader of the strike.

Weisbord's attempt yesterday to join a strikers' committee summoned by Gov. A. Harry Moore for mediation conferences resulted in the calling off of scheduled peace negotiations.

Faint hope for possible settlement came today with announcement that at a mass meeting of the strikers on Monday the rank and file of the workers would be asked to vote on whether Weisbord should figure in negotiations. If he should be ousted by the strikers, it is probable that an attempt at mediation would begin immediately but Weisbord's hold on the workers has been so strong that such a procedure is highly doubtful.

2 CHICAGO WOMEN ESCAPE MACHINE GUN ATTACK

Chicago, April 24.—(UP)—Two women escaped death from a machine gun attack last night, falling flat on the floor of a beauty parlor while bullets were sprayed all around them.

The guns were mounted on an automobile which drew up to a curb and halted long enough to discharge one round of shot. Police counted nearly 100 bullet marks on the building. Mrs. Pearl Hruby, proprietress, and a woman customer dropped to the floor as the firing started and escaped injury. The attack was blamed to a warfare between organized and independent beauty parlors.

ICE LADEN TORRENT SWEEPS THROUGH MOSCOW

Moscow, April 24.—(UP)—A foaming ice laden torrent is sweeping through Moscow today and the city is threatened with the most serious flood in recent years, although the rise of the waters is becoming slower every hour.

Approximately 15,000 inhabitants of the river bottoms are living in the upper stories of their houses and 11 factories have been inundated by the flood waters.

A flotilla of boats is supplying food and other aid to the refugees, who fled from their homes to schools, clubs and railway stations.

"PROHIBITION HAS BEEN VINDICATED"

WAYNE B. WHEELER, ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE CHIEF, GIVES TESTIMONY

SAYS PROHIBITION HAS BEEN FOR COMPLETE BETTERMENT
OF COUNTRY

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 24.—Prohibition has been vindicated by the three weeks' investigation of the senate judiciary sub committee, Wayne B. Wheeler, Anti-Saloon League chief, today told the liquor law jury which has conducted the inquiry.

The investigation has disclosed that prohibition has wrought financial, moral and economic betterment of the country, Wheeler declared.

"What is needed now is legislation to tighten instead of to weaken the Volstead act," he said.

His closing argument came at the opening of the sub committee's final session, after Lincoln C. Andrews, federal prohibition director, had explained he knew of no practicable method of distribution of beer of low alcoholic content, so that it would help law enforcement.

Previously Yale students had told of drinking at the university, opposing the dry testimony of Professor Irving Fisher, Yale economist.

Julian Codman, wet prosecuting attorney, will deliver the closing argument for the wets after Wheeler finishes.

"Two things only have been proven at this hearing, that the wets want liquor, although they are not agreed on how weak a drink they will accept nor on either their method or the reason to allege for getting it; and that the dries want prohibition," Wheeler said.

"The American people do not favor any surrender to the bootlegger or to the brewer."

"This nation has never retreated. It is not in the mood to permit criminals and lawbreakers to revise its constitution and repeal its laws. It demands that those in authority attack the foes of law and order. It wants its officers provided with whatever legal machinery is necessary to win this fight."

"It will not accept excuses but will demand results."

Replying to Wheeler and closing for the wets Codman branded as "simply malicious," certain allegations that the wets "are making an attack upon the morality of our American youth."

"Only a fanatic can believe that the drinking of beer, wines and spirits in moderation is a sin, only an ignorant man that people can be made moral by legislation. Such people are wholly blind to the fact that illegal manufacture of liquor, rum running and bootlegging exist simply because there is a demand from the people of this country for the products which are thus supplied. Law or no law, so long as the demand continues, a way of satisfying it will be found."

"The prohibition department has been corrupt from the beginning and markedly so during the administration of Major Haynes, when appropriations were made at the investigation of the Anti-Saloon League and the churches."

"The dries now shout for the dismissal of Secretary Andrews solely for the reason that he has told the truth. Both Secretary Andrews and District Attorney Buckner of New York have tried to do their duty under extremely difficult circumstances. The wets have shown that since 1920 when the Volstead act went into effect, drinking and drunkenness have increased throughout the whole country in a most appalling manner," Codman said.

"You have heard the evidence that cannot be disputed that women and children in this country both drink as never before," he continued. "The evidence shows that character of drinking has changed for the worse. Alcohol in its various forms of split whiskey, split gin and moonshine are now drunk by our people in place of the beer of earlier day."

"We have shown by the evidence that corruption exists upon a scale so colossal that it makes me tremble for the safety of our institutions. The most important testimony in

50,000 EXCITED REFUGEES POUR INTO PEKING

HAVE STORIES OF ALLEGED OUT-RAGES COMMITTED BY THE
MANCHURIAN TROOPS

FOOD SITUATION IN THE CAP-ITAL IS ALREADY AN ACUTE ONE

By RANDALL GOULD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Peking, April 24.—Fifty thousand excited refugees poured into Peking today with stories of alleged outrages committed by the Manchurian troops quartered in the suburbs. The food situation in the capital was already acute and these additional mouths add to the seriousness of the situation.

A majority of the shops are closed today owing to the efforts of the Manchurian military commanders to compel tradesmen to accept military money, which might be worth something today and nothing tomorrow.

The nationalist garrison was driven from Peking last week by a coalition army dominated by Manchurian troops representing Marshal Chang Tso Lin. President Tuan Chi Jui subsequently fled to Tien Tsin and now the city is without civil government.

BRAINERD FARMER CLAIMS HE LOST $300 IN MILL CITY

TWO WOMEN AND SOFT DRINK
PARLOR MAN HELD BY POLICE

STORY OF BRAINERD FARMER,
CHARLES HESS, BEING INVESTIGATED

Minneapolis, Minn., April 24.—(UP)—Two women and the proprietor of a soft drink parlor here were held today while police investigated the reported robbery of a Brainerd, Minn., farmer of $300.

Charles Hess, the farmer, charges that two women took him to an apartment, gave him drugged liquor and robbed him. Later they took him for a taxi ride and threw him out, he said.

No charges have been filed against the trio under arrest.

Note—The Dispatch was unable to secure any information as to where Hess lives, on inquiry from the county agent's office and other sources. The city directory does not contain the name of Charles Hess.

ELECTRICAL AND WIND STORMS

STRIKE SEVERAL MIDDLEWEST-ERN STATES TO-DAY

Chicago, April 24.—(UP)—Electrical and wind storms accompanied in many regions by heavy rain, struck several middlewestern states today.

Wire communications were seriously impaired between some of the larger cities and smaller towns were almost completely isolated. Iowa, Wisconsin and northern Illinois were the most badly affected.

This case was that of General Andrews. Here is one who knows intimately the working of the Volstead act, since he has tried hard and honestly to do his duty in its enforcement.

RUSSO-GERMAN NEUTRALITY PACT IS SIGNED TODAY

PROVIDES FOR MUTUAL PROTEC-TION IN CASE OF ATTACK
BY OTHER NATIONS

IN EVENT OF EITHER ECONOMIC OR MILITARY AS-SAULTS

Berlin, April 24.—(UP)—The Russo-German neutrality treaty providing for mutual protection in the event of economic or military attacks from other nations, was signed today.

Simultaneously with the signing of the treaty at 1:15 P. M. Russia and Germany exchanged notes, the German note reaffirming that the treaty did not conflict with the League of Nations covenant, nor with the League of Nations covenant. The Russian note acknowledged this to be a fact.

Before the treaty was signed the cabinet met and approved it, whereupon President Von Hindenburg authorized Foreign Minister Stresemann to sign it.

Europe faces new complications following the completing of the treaty. It is suggested in some quarters that the League of Nations may refuse to recognize the pact.

The treaty does not, in itself, however, conjure up threats of aggression or war. On the contrary it is intended as a measure for the furthering of the peace of Europe.

Its purposes are two:
It relieves the soviet's anxiety lest Germany become the corridor of a future military advance against Moscow.

It reassures Germany that the soviet army will remain neutral in case Poland or France launch military or economic measures against Germany.

Woman Kills Self When Divorce Suit Started by Attorney

Beloit, Wis., April 24.—(UP)—"You may drop the case. I have found a different way," read a note received by a Beloit attorney from Mrs. W. A. Harris, whose body was found in the kitchen of her home with a tube leading from an open gas jet to the body.

W. A. Harris, an architect's superintendent now engaged on a job in De Kalb, Ill., a few days previous had started as action against the woman for divorce. This was believed the cause of the suicide.

When found, an open bible was under one arm while on her breast was a letter to her husband.

ARM OF WOMAN FOUND IN GRAVEL PIT, MADISON, S. D.

Madison, S. D., April 24.—(UP)—The arm of a young woman found in a gravel pit near here confronted authorities today with the gruesome mystery. Physicians said the arm had been hacked off by some one inexperienced in surgery. The member they believed, was from a youthful and refined woman.

COLD RAIN FALLS AT ST. PAUL TODAY

St. Paul, April 24.—(UP)—A cold rain whipped by strong April winds fell here today, rainstorms were reported general over the northwest.

Agricultural experts said the precipitation would be invaluable to farmers of the region. Seeding is underway in some places and winter wheat will be benefited.

GASOLINE PRICE ADVANCES 1 TO 3c IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Huron, S. D., April 24.—(UP)—Gasoline prices advanced one to three cents in South Dakota today. The new price is 25 cents a gallon. The Standard Oil company issued a statement declaring the advance affected 10 per cent of the cities in the state where prices had been cut to meet competition. The rate now is 2.6 cents below that prevailing in 1923 when the gasoline war started.

SENATE'S BIG PROHIBITION SHOW CLOSED

HAD A SPECTACULAR RUN OF ABOUT THREE WEEKS

FINAL ARGUMENTS ORDERED BY CHAIRMAN HAR-
RELD

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 24.—The senate's big prohibition show will be over today after a spectacular three weeks' run.

Final arguments were ordered by Chairman Harrel of the Inquiring Judiciary sub committee with a view to concluding the first major investigation of prohibition since its enactment six years ago.

With the end in sight here is how the evidence adduced is viewed by wets and dries:

Senator Edge, republican, New Jersey, leader of the senate wet bloc, believes that a prima facie case has been established that prohibition has incited corruption, defeated aspirations for real temperance, promoted disregard for law, especially among young people and that beer and light wines would be beneficial to temperance and law enforcement.

Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, thinks the hearings have disclosed a necessity for legislation tightening the Volstead act, proved that prohibition has been beneficial to the nation morally and financially and shown that the majority of the people want the present law retained.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews was recalled this morning to explain new measures he had devised for stopping alcohol leakage and smuggling. He is the last dry witness scheduled and the wets expect to put on an editor of a Yale periodical to show conditions at the University.

The dries have little more than two hours remaining and the wets less than one.

Wheeler will then make the concluding argument for the dries. Whether he will take the stand is still problematical. The wets want to put him under oath and make him submit to cross examination when he makes his final argument, but it is doubtful if they can have their way.

Julian Codman, who has acted as prosecuting attorney for the wets, will conclude the hearings with a final summing up for the wets. Then the case will go to the committee jury, but nobody is doubtful about the verdict.

Wet measures will be killed and dry enforcement measures sanctioned.

Washington, April 24.—Liquor is easily obtainable at Yale University, New Haven, Conn., and the greater attempts to enforce the prohibition law, the greater is sentiment of students against it, Russell Lee Post, Hartford, Conn., chairman of the Yale Daily News, told the senate prohibition committee today.

Post said 2,500 of the 4,000 students at Yale participated in a referendum on the liquor question.

Chairman Harrel, dry, asked if the ballots had been checked over. The editor said each name had been checked.

Post, known as the "king of the campus," said students go to bootleggers and get as much liquor as they desire. He asserted that the students were four to one against the Volstead act and by the same ratio in favor of government distribution. He confessed authorship of the ar-

PENSION BILL, RETIREMENT BILL, VETERAN BILLS

NUMEROUS OTHER MISCELLANEOUS MEASURES UNDER SEARCHLIGHT

COMBINED, THESE LAWS WOULD CAUSE TOTAL EXPENSE OF
$190,000,000

By WILLIAM J. McEVOY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 24.—Framing their legislative program for the remaining days of the session, house leaders today served notice that a score of bills, now on the calendar, proposing large expenditures, must undergo sharp pruning or fail to be considered.

The measures referred to were the pension bill, retirement bills, military park bills, the veteran bills and numerous miscellaneous measures, which would cause a total expenditure of $190,000,000.

The last reduction in taxes, leaders said, would be completely offset if congress enacted all of these bills and other money bills which are expected to be submitted within the next two weeks.

"We have got to protect the federal treasury," said Chairman Snell, New York, republican, of the rules committee, who has been besieged with requests for special rules for many pending bills.

"There is no objection to veterans retirement and pension legislation but we must be sure that all proposals are cut to the minimum."

"We are going to pass many of the pending money measures but only after non-essential features have been eliminated. We are fairly certain there will be a surplus in the treasury this year, but it is for next year that we must provide."

Leaders plan to confer with proponents of the bills now being held up and hope that a definite program can be worked out within a week.

Date for final adjournment of the session, according to Snell is dependent on the celerity of the senate.

"We can clean up our slate in three weeks and be ready for adjournment by May 15 if the senate keeps pace with us," Snell said.

SEARCH IDENTITY OF WOMAN FOUND DROWNED IN LAKE

Ellsworth, Wis., April 24.—(UP)—Authorities today were searching for a clue to the identity of a woman whose body was taken last night from Lake Pepin near Bay City south of here.

Albert Dostall, a fisherman, found the body. Coroner George Hoyer said there was no evidence of the cause of death or identity.

Further examination was to be made this morning. Apparently the woman had been dead about 48 hours. She was 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighed 150 pounds.

Articles in the Yale News expressing opinions that drinking was as widespread at Yale now as ever.

"Bootleggers are not allowed on the campus but the students go to them outside," he said.

Greely Sturdivant, Jr., Portland, Maine, managing editor of the paper, and Albert Wells of Bristol, Conn., corroborated his statements.

The boys volunteered little information and answered questions of committee members with "Yes, sir," and "No, sir."

Their testimony was given in refutation of previous evidence submitted by Prof. Irving Fisher, Yale economist, that drinking there was on the decline.

The students occupied 15 of the precious minutes of the wets and then Fisher was called by the dries to answer them.

"The students I know are sincere and conscientious, but if they want to get at the facts, I can't see how you can receive evidence from boys who were from 1 to 15 years old and not living at New Haven when the prohibition law went into effect," said Fisher.

"Furthermore, only a little over 50 per cent of the faculty voted their belief that drinking had increased at the university. Most of them were not at the university when the prohibition law was adopted."

True Courage

More and more we come to see that courage is a positive thing. It is not simply the absence of fear. To be brave is not merely not to be afraid. JOHNNY JUMP UP ALARM CLOCK

Faithful Old Clock Ekes Out Existence in Office of City Clerk, Mrs. Fleener

HAD YEARS OF SERVICE

Wound Each Morning by City Clerks of Three Different Regimes

It rattles, it dingles, it is called all kinds of names, it is even shaken, but still it ticks. This is the history of the "Johnny Jump Up" alarm clock eking out an existence of service in the office of the city clerk, Mrs. Elizabeth T. Fleener.

It has seen years of service in Brainerd's city hall in the city clerk's office, being wound each morning by the city clerks during the regime of three of Brainerd's public servants in that office.

It was originally owned by Severn Swanson, city clerk from 1918-1920, "Johnny Jump Up" being then the gift of a thoughtful Brainerd citizen who thought the city clerk's office needed a clock. Mr. Swanson passed it on to George W. Grewcock, now deceased, who took good care of it during 1921 and 1922.

Mrs. Fleener is now the owner of the faithful clock. Some time ago when Mrs. Fleener came to work one morning, "Johnny Jump Up" refused to work. Never before had the faithful fixture of the city clerk's department slumped in its duties. So—Mrs. Fleener took the clock to Dr. Ralph A. Hallquist, dairy inspector who operated on "Johnny Jump Up." The doctor did a good job and Johnny is back on the job again with renewed pep but Dr. Hallquist in his operation forgot to replace all of the mechanism.

As the expression goes "it's a darn good thing for the shape it's in," but Mrs. Fleener has pity on it and she announced today that some day she was going to give the old faithful servant a decent burial.

But—the old alarm clock still runs, as if protesting on its advanced age and dreading the day when it will no longer occupy the mantel shelf in the city clerk's office.

Tick, tick, dong, its 12 o'clock noon, and "Johnny Jump Up" is alone with his thoughts for one hour until Mrs. Fleener returns at 1 o'clock and commences business for the afternoon.

Kiddies' Street Hats and Coats for Spring

Hats and coats for the youngsters for street wear are important. Here is shown an interesting little outfit displayed at the recent junior-wear league show held in New York.

Fine Stitching Adds to Beauty of Garment

One of the things that most cheapens the appearance of ready-made clothing—and of some home-made clothing—for that matter—is the conspicuously coarse stitching. The stitches may be too long or the thread too coarse; usually both faults are present. The most beautiful stitching is done with as close a stitch and as fine a thread as possible. It often pays, for the increased beauty of appearance, to take out coarse stitching on some conspicuous part of a dress or blouse and do it over properly.

Action Alone Counts

There's too much talk and too little action on the part of most men. Talk is cheap and action costs 'tis true. But if hands would fly as fast as tongues there would be accomplished very much more than now is done.—Grit.

TURKS' MASSING OF MILITARY RESERVES TAKEN AS THREAT AGAINST MUSSOLINI'S ACTIVITY IN NORTHERN AFRICA

The above photograph, taken in Constantinople, shows members of one of the classes of Turkish military reserves. Dispatches from Constantinople states that several classes of reservists have been called out. The action of the Turkish Government is taken to be a threat against the expected political invasion of Arabia by the Italian Fascist Government, and Premier Mussolini's recent visit to Tripoli.

Interior of Solitary Confinement Cell Occupied By Bandit Whittemore During Bank Murder Trial

Every precaution has been taken by the Buffalo, N. Y., authorities to guard Richard Reese Whittemore, bandit band leader, who was captured in New York and taken to Buffalo to stand trial for a double murder committed during a bank robbery in the latter city. Whittemore is also wanted in Baltimore for the killing of a guard during his escape from prison. The photograph shows the interior of the cell in Buffalo, and his guard, Frank B. Guenther.

Newspaper Gets New Ideas About Culture

Most of us have been a bit lazy as to just what culture is. We have perhaps generally taken our cue from Matthew Arnold, who had a notion that culture involved knowing the best that had been thought and known, that it was the pursuit of sweetness and light, and that its motto should be to make the reason and will of God prevail. But the address of Mr. John Cowper Powys on the subject expands our ideas. The Kansas City Times comments. We are informed that the cultured person is detached and sophisticated, that he defends himself from bounders by saying, "Really! Indeed! How interesting!" That he is capable of renouncing friends, family, church, business. That he escapes from the world by reading the classic authors. Finally, we infer that a touch of indigestion is desirable in order to keep the cultured one at the proper pitch of dissatisfaction with the world. Otherwise he might get to enjoying life as Robert Browning did. Well, we always are glad to enlarge our experience and whittle down the edges of our ignorance. Especially are we consoled to learn that when we feel most like the human crab, when we are unusually disagreeable, and full of spleen, then are we most cultured.

These Might Be Heard if Optimism Prevailed

"Fire? Fiddlesticks, young man. Looklet says this hotel is absolutely fireproof. Go away and let me sleep."
"What's this—from the income tax bureau? Good! They probably are sending me a refund."
"I don't seem to be able to get central, Mary, but I'm sure those burglars won't be through in the cellar for some time yet."
"It's a good thing Jack has gone over to Gloria. He'll appreciate me all the more after he's tired of her."
"Lots of time, George dear. Just try again and give her a little more gas. That train will stop rather than hit us."
"I feel I'm going to lose my petticoat before another block, but I'll probably look snappier without it."
"Ten years in Sing Sing? Thank you, judge. I've always wanted to wear a light suit, but I never had the courage."
"Triplets? Hot dog! That just completes the children's baseball nine!"—Exchange.

GENERAL STRIKE WOULD PARALYZE GREAT BRITAIN

YESTERDAY THE BRAINERD DISPATCH carried a report on industrial conditions in England where the shadow of a general strike and a paralysis of all industry looms should the coal miners carry out their threats to strike.

A general strike in Great Britain, such as is threatened for May, would mean total paralysis of industry and transport. The impending strike is discussed in Liberty magazine by a member of the Labor Party and a trained American observer and writer who describes the government organization now mobilized to meet the emergency. According to W. N. Ewer, who writes of labor's side, "The month of May is full of portent for Great Britain. It is the zero hour that may open the bitterest industrial conflict the country will have known for many years."

"Do not imagine," says Mr. Ewer, "that British labor is in a revolutionary mood, or that the trade-union leaders, even of the left wing, are planning to drive the country into a crisis that would be the prelude to revolution. Nothing is further from their minds. But in a crisis events have a knack of taking the bit between their teeth."

"Suppose that last July the government had repeated, on that critical Friday afternoon, the refusal given in the morning to the suggestion of a subsidy for the mining industry. The mines would have shut down automatically; not some but all of them."

"And now the period of waiting is drawing to a close. The vista is opening again. For there was in July no settlement of the mines crisis, but only a postponement until May. And May is at hand."

John S. Steele, writing of the government's stand, says that the situation is full of dynamite. "The miners are discontented with their lot," he writes, "and, most Englishmen admit, justly so. They are allied with the railroad men and transport workers and the first effort to move a pound of coal, if the miners strike, will lead to a nation-wide strike in these industries."

"Food and fuel will be immobilized; and when it is realized that England relies for at least half of her food on supplies imported from abroad, the seriousness of the situation is apparent. With a complete tie-up of transport activities England would starve."

"The first step in case of a nation-wide strike is for the King in Council, which in practice means the Cabinet, to declare the existence of a state of national emergency as provided for in an act passed in 1920. The moment this is done regulations will be broadcast and ten members of the Cabinet will take up their posts as civil commissioners in the ten districts into which England and Wales have been divided. It will be their duty to organize local services and to maintain supplies."

And don't imagine that the only effect of the strike will be felt in Great Britain. As the world's largest carrier of goods, paralyzing the shipping trade will be felt in the port of every nation dealing with England. All nations of the world are now so closely interlocked in trade relations, that the difficulties of one are reflected throughout the world and affect its neighbors. There will be no such thing as making money off the unfortunate condition or circumstances of a neighboring country. A general strike, if long continued, will affect the buying power of such country and affect allied industries in other nations.

Though a deal of water separates us from Great Britain, an upheaval on their side of the ocean will affect us on this side. The whole industrial situation is one that calls for skillful and far-sighted diplomacy, and may the best and noblest minds of Britain, on the sides of labor and capital, solve that problem before all wheels stop moving, as threatened for May 1st.

THE CITY'S PROPOSED WAREHOUSE

AN improvement of considerable importance to the city of Brainerd is the proposed double warehouse, each section of which is 30 by 60 feet in size and one story in height, built substantially of solid brick, and located at the northeast corner of Laurel street and West Bluff avenue.

The street exposure of the building is being faced with an attractive faced brick and will prove to be a building of which the city can be proud. The entire structure will have a concrete floor, and covered with a fireproof roof.

The purpose for which these two buildings are being erected is for storing vehicles and heavy material for the various departments of the city. Five large garage doors are being furnished in order that the equipment of the city can be easily brought in and unloaded from trucks.

Provision will be made for cases and containers to carry various parts needed in the conduct of street work of all kinds. By thus assembling and caring for the machinery and equipment of the various departments of the city, such matter is assured of adequate storage, thus contributing to better care of such equipment. In future, it will be a source of pleasure and not one of severe routine to quickly take an inventory of stocks, material and machinery on hand.

Provision will also be made in the warehouses for a repair department where men of the city may work under cover and repair material on days when weather may be so inclement as to prevent outside work. At the north end of the property the water and light department is contemplating the erection of a platform to hold its supply of poles which is used to replace worn out material. An unloading device will also be provided to unload directly from cars along the side-track which flanks the property. This improvement is one that has been needed for a very long time and the erection of which should appeal to the taxpayers in general. Its construction comes at a time, too, when material as well as labor can be most reasonably procured.

Vernon E. White has the contract, and plans on beginning operations next week. Local labor and material, of course, will be given the preference. The engineering department of the city is busy today laying out the building lines.

CHARLES CHENEY says in the Minneapolis Journal that Senator Chris Rosenmeier has filed for a second term and that he is expected to stand in the front rank of senators next winter. Though a first term, he headed the important rules committee at the last session and wielded a marked influence on the floor.

HON. C. D. JOHNSON, Brainerd druggist, is being groomed as a Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, says the Pillager Herald.

Because They Abhor Vulgar Things, but keenly appreciate harmony wherever they find it; in tone, in movement, line or color, and try to surround their boys with the best of such influences.

Because They Study to Be Good Listeners and always bestow a generous appreciation of real merit in whatever realm it presents itself, whether it be in battling up flies, making good examination grades, the winning of a debate, or some exhibition of real character.

Because They Maintain a Live Acquaintance with "birds and bugs and things," and love nothing better than to introduce their boys to such simple secrets of Old Dame Nature as they themselves know, and through such acquaintance lead them on to a finer appreciation of God at work in His world.

EMBARRASSING

Willis—How do you like the combination furniture they have in some of these New York flats?

Gillis—Not at all. I went to bed in a piece of that kind of junk the other night at a friend's house and when I woke up, two women were serving breakfast on the foot-board, a fellow was signing checks on the head-board and another fellow was underneath the bed making coffee.

Professor Bug—Gracious, that must be the great wall of China!

An hour later he said to his chief clerk: "That gent bought a postage stamp. Couldn't you interest him in something else?"
"Oh, yes, I induced him to have a look at our directory."

Pa Took the Air

"Father, freight is goods that are sent by water or land, isn't it?"
"That's right, son."
"Well, then, why is it that the freight that goes by ship is called a cargo, and when it goes by car it is called a shipment?"
And then Johnny wondered why father put on his hat and sauntered outside to get the air.—Edison Toples.

The Worse the Better

"It's an old saying that the better the wares the greater the sale."
"Yes," was the reply, "but it's the other way round in my business. The worse the article the more they are used."
"What do you sell?"
"Matches."

DR. ROY SMITH'S SATURDAY NIGHT TALKS

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

SOME LIFE PRESERVERS

In a generation equipped with self-starters, accelerators, high test gas, high blood pressure, high pressure salesmanship, speed indicators, one way traffic and high frequency, there seems to be a distinct need for some good serviceable life preservers, therefore the following recommendations are made.

Learn to laugh when there is no joke. A hearty laugh is a mental vacation, a spiritual relaxation, a moral tonic, and a physical restorative. Don't wait for the arrival of a humorist; start your own laughs and be independent of the comic strips, the movies or the humorous magazines.

Learn to ride a hobby through your worries. William Herschel was a court musician who made astronomy a side line and his side line made him immortal. The author of "Alice in Wonderland" was a professor of mathematics who took to story telling to save his life.

Earn the gratitude of some friend who has nothing else to give. Nothing cures ennui, boredom, anxiety, worry, irritability, nervousness or exhaustion like remembering a kindness done to someone who could do no kindness in return.

Play a game that hypnotizes you—that wraps you in oblivion, that absorbs all your energy, interest, attention, ability and skill. Give yourself one-half hour a day for play purposes. Schedule it, defend it, guard it, use it with the same devotion that you would use in offering prayers.

Surrender yourself once a day to the hypnotism of baby arms about your neck, baby fingers in your hair, baby laughter in your ears. Cut a lodge meeting once a week, if necessary, to sit by your child as he goes to sleep. Counsel with your girl; tussle with your boy, visit with your wife. Keep the home fires burning.

Build a home where you can shut trouble out. Lug into it no scandal, slander, suspicion, envy or jealousy. Make the atmosphere thereof so clean and wholesome that no moral miasma nor spiritual contagion can develop. Make it a temple in which to be your best, not a house in which to exhibit your worst.

Cultivate a faith that depends, not upon tradition, doctrine, ecclesiastical mandate or clerical dictum, but roots deep in a personal experience of friendship with God. Doctrines may then die, theories may perish and churches may fall but your life-preserver will not fail.

ON THE JOB

"That machinist is the most thorough man of his trade I know." "What makes you think so?" "He not only works all day, but bolts his food at meals, rivets every body's attention and hammers every new idea advanced."

The Limit

The tightest man of all I know. Goes to church by radio. Thinks the hymns and sermon great. But tunes out while they pass the plate.

The Outcome to Govern

First Luncher—Let's match for the cats.
Second Ditto—All right. Where shall we dine?
First—Let's match first.

Too Late

"I've come," said the woman politician, "to ask you to support me." "I'm sorry, miss," replied the man, "but you're too late. I've been married for years."

The Prescription

Daughter—What did the specialist say about auntie's frightful attack of kleptomania?
Mother—He said she must take things more quietly in the future.

Engaged

Caller—I would like a few words with your master?
Maid—Yes, sir. Would you mind waiting until missus has had hers?

QUALITY AT LOW COST

"$14⁹⁸, as advertised"

"How do you spell 'financially'?" asked a college student of his room-mate.

"F-i-n-a-n-c-i-a-l-l-y," said the room-mate, spelling out the word slowly. As an afterthought, he added: "And 'embarrassed' has two r's and two s's."

How often have you said to a salesman, "That's more than I care to pay"? If you had known the price in advance, you would have been spared this little embarrassment. That's one of the great services rendered by newspaper advertising.

By reading the advertisements before going to the stores, you know what you will have to pay for an article. You need not reveal your financial status to a salesman. You perhaps do not like to ask the price of goods anyhow. If the merchant has told you the price in his advertisement, you do not have to ask.

Any way you figure it out, it pays you to read the advertisements. Regularly! The one advertisement you skip may contain just the news you would have welcomed. Read all the advertisements you can. Keep informed.

The intelligent way to shop is to read the advertisements and then go to the stores that offer the best values. Make notes beforehand of the articles that interest you. That's the way to get the most for your money. That's the way to save time.

When you know the price in advance, you can ask to be shown the goods "as advertised"

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL SEASON OPENS

LOCALS TO PLAY THE C-I. TEAM AT CROSBY TODAY

YOUNG VAN WALK TO HURL FOR THE BRAINERD HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

STRONG NORTH WIND BLOWING.
AND TEMPERATURE
UNFAVORABLE

The Brainerd high school baseball team will open the season this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Crosby when the local team meets the Crosby-Ironton high school team. The locals hope for a victory to start off the season.

A large crowd of local fans left with the team at noon today to give the local team their moral support.

Coach W. F. Rosel who has put the boys through stiff practices all this week announced this morning that the team was ready to take the field against any team.

"The boys are in good shape, and their chances of defeating Crosby-Ironton in today's opening game are very good. The boys have showed up very well at all the practices. The boys are working well together and the team that beats them must be a good team," said Coach Rosel this morning.

Coach Rosel announced the following lineup for today's opening game.

Catcher—Tribur.
Pitcher—Van Walk.
First base—Lowe.
Second base—Hanson.
Short stop—Marshall.
Third base—Fitzharris.
Left field—Erickson.
Right field—Avery.
Center field—Wise.
Subs—Peterson, Lorenz, and Flaata.

The following players will lineup with the Crosby-Ironton team—Wescott, Jelesed, Ekorn, Ikkela, Niemi, Johanson, Aulje, John Boturae, Burud, Oberg, Bennett, Satovich, Gustad, MacDonald, Poppa, Zucca, Butorac, Pomeroy, Carr, Stark, Stimich, Christensen and Krueger.

Young Van Walk pitching ace for the local high school, on whose progress the big league scouts are constantly on the watch, is in good shape for the game today. He is expected to lead his team through for a certain victory.

The teams will be forced to play with a strong north wind blowing and the temperature much lower than it has been for the past two weeks.

ANNUAL DRAKE RELAY CARNIVAL

2ND DAY OPENS WITH STRONG WIND SWEEPING THE TRACK

Des Moines, Iowa, April 24. (UP)—With a strong wind sweeping down the track, the second day of the 17th annual Drake relays opened today.

The track, which yesterday was a mass of mud, had been rolled dry for today's events.

Preliminaries of the 120 yards high hurdles, postponed from Friday, opened the afternoon program. Leighton Dye, of South Carolina, led the field in the fourth section, making a mark of 15 seconds flat.

Illinois won the first section of the 440 yard university relay with a time of 43.2-10 seconds, which placed them first on the basis of comparative time in the two sections. Notre Dame, second, in the first section, and Nebraska, running first in the second section, tied for second place and Kansas won fourth. Trophies were awarded all four teams placing in each event.

Summaries:
120 yards high hurdles, first section—Baskin, Alabama Poly, first; Weir, Nebraska, second; Kelly, Northwestern, third; White, Coe College, fourth. Time, 15.4-10.

Second section—Won by Werner, Illinois; Simpson, Drake, second; Gallagher, Coe, third; Wilmer, Iowa State, fourth. Time, 15.2-10.

Third section—Won by Guthrie, Ohio State; Greene, Alabama Poly, second; Doorndors, Kansas, third; Mann, Monmouth, fourth. Time, 15.5-10.

Fourth section—Won by Dye, Southern California; Weber, Kansas Teachers, second; Fairchild, Kansas Aggies, third; Morrison, Chicago, fourth. Time, 15 flat.

120 yard high hurdles, American championship, finals—Dye, Southern California, first; Guthrie, Ohio State, second; Baskin, Alabama Poly, third; Weir, Nebraska, fourth. Time, 14.8-10.

HUDDLE SYSTEM IS EASY TO USE

Coach Got Novel Idea From Sports Scribe.

A sports reporter from a Chicago newspaper was responsible for the introduction of the so-called huddle system in basket ball being used successfully by Coach Maury Kent at Northwestern university this season.

The system, which has attracted considerable attention among authorities of the game and which is quite likely to be adopted widely by coaches, was brought into existence by a reporter who saw the novelty of such a method.

Coach Kent had been using the huddle for the past several years in practice games between the first and second teams where both sides used the same plays and were familiar with the hand signals.

The sports scribe watched the Purple eagles in practice one afternoon just before the opening of the present season and saw the huddle being used by the opposing fives. He asked the purple mentor whether he planned to use the system in the regular games. "Sure! Why not?" said Kent, who later declared that he hadn't given the idea any thought, but when it was suggested by the reporter he saw no reason why it wouldn't work.

The system calls for no radical departure in the playing of the game. Yet it gives the team employing it a simple method of calling its plays, both on the offense and defense. During its brief existence at Northwestern the huddle has proved its value and will be continued, according to Coach Kent, who originated it.

"We find that the huddle has come up to expectations," declared Coach Kent. "It is easy to use and is more accurate than the former method of hand signaling. Contrary to popular belief it functions even when the opposing team gets the tip-off. It enables a team to vary its defense more rapidly and more surely."

Not Yet a Regular

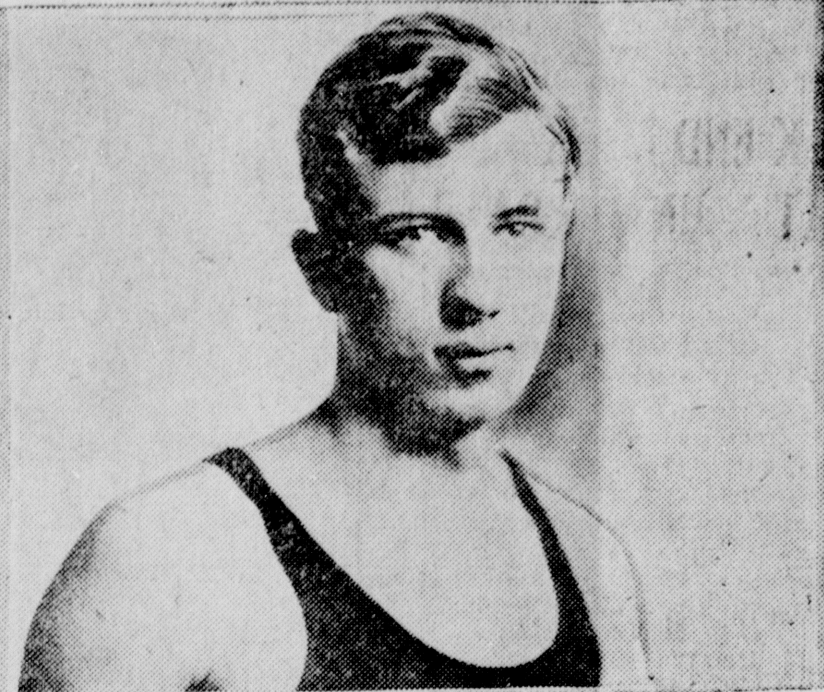

Rube Bressler has been playing with the Cincinnati Reds for some years, but so far has been unable to annex a regular place, but his batting and his versatile defense and his aggressive spirit won for him a place on the honor list of valuable players in the National league.

The Bright Side

"My goodness alive!" ejaculated Mrs. Flint in the midst of her reading. "It says here in the paper that over at Topheavy they have had four cantatas and a helpful lecture within three months."
"Oh, well," returned honest Farmer Flint, "one nice thing about Topheavy is that nobody is compelled by law to move over there to live."—Kansas City Star.

Laufer, member of the Central Y. M. C. A. Cincinnati swimming team, is coming to be regarded as the greatest back-stroke swimmer ever developed. This 18-year-old boy recently swam 150 yards in 1:43 3/5 in a 75-foot pool at Cincinnati, thus bettering the record of 1:44 4/5 made by the great Johnny Weissmuller.

FINE WRESTLING CARD APRIL 30, GARDNER HALL

MAIN BOUT BETWEEN TONY MARCONY AND JACK Mc- CARTHY

BOTH WRESTLERS ARE EVENLY MATCHED AS TO WEIGHT

The main bout on the wrestling card next Friday evening, April 30, in Gardner's Hall will be that between Tony Marcony, Brainerd man of national reputation, and Jack McCarthy, of Hill City, Minn., who also has a big reputation as a middleweight wrestler. Both wrestlers are evenly matched in weight, each tipping the scales at 158 pounds. The winner of the bout will meet Waino Ketonen in the next match for the world's middleweight wrestling title.

Marcony is well known in Brainerd. A short while ago he wrestled Johnny Myers, middleweight champ of the world, in Oklahoma to a draw and defeated Bull Olson of Des Moines two falls out of three.

In the semi-windup to a finish, Dan Brown of Chicago will clash with Jack Gorman of Omaha, Neb., winner take all.

There will also be two preliminary bouts between local contestants. Dr. A. A. Steinfeldt will referee.

FOUND GUILTY OF ATTACK ON INVALID GIRL

Milwaukee, April 24. (UP)—Walter Ostrowski, found guilty of an attack upon a 16 year old invalid girl, was today sentenced to 35 years in the state prison by Municipal Judge George J. Shaughnessy. The judge in imposing sentence declared the offense was one of the most heinous crimes in the history of the court. According to testimony Ostrowski attacked the girl on March 17, while she lay helpless in bed.

Golf Was True to Form During the 1925 Season

Golf was the only event that ran true to form for the season of 1925. Jones' winning of the national amateur for the second time did more to substantiate the fact.

This has not happened since 1913. However the amateur did bring forth a large field of new comers and was the downfall of many old timers.

Of the professional class the old boys kept at par, yielding to McFarlane.
Glenna Collett came back with her bag and won the woman's championship after an absence of two years. The professional field brought another repeater in Walter Hagen. Had he not done this he would have been completely out of titles. McDonald Smith took the western honors while Barnes, the staid and easy going, did nothing more than was expected of him.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's Hero—Ple Traynor of the Pirates, whose homer with two on in the first gave Pittsburgh a 3 to 2 victory over St. Louis.

Carlson pitched airtight ball, allowing only four hits and the Phillies won from Boston, 3 to 1.

The Cubs amassed 20 hits, Grimm getting four of them, and ran away with an 18 to 1 victory over Cincinnati.

Babe Ruth's second homer of the season helped the Yankees to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 1.

Although outbatted, Cleveland defeated Detroit, 5 to 3 and retained the American league lead.

It took 12 innings for the Browns to beat Chicago in a 2 to 1 pitchers' duel. Melillo's single scoring McManus was the decisive factor.

Grimes, Brooklyn hurler, was wild and the Giants took their seventh straight, winning from Brooklyn, 6 to 3.

The Senators got away to an early lead off Groves and Pate and were never headed, defeating the Athletics 9 to 5.

Pounding their way to an 8 to 1 victory over the Saints the Colonels held their lead in the American association, with the Millers right on their heels. The Colonels pounced upon Werneke in the second inning and scored 7 runs in 7 hits before he was retired.

Pounding four pitchers the Millers won, 13 to 8, from the Indians. Middleton of the Millers was nicked for 10 hits while four Indian twirlers allowed 17 safeties.

Taking advantage of every break and 19 hits off three Columbus pitchers the Brewers downed the Senators 12 to 4. Four Brewers rapped out homers.

Rain at Kansas City postponed the game with the Hens and Kaws.

MILES, ONLY 18, WINNER OF BOSTON MARATHON 4 MINUTES UNDER RECORD

John C. Miles, an unknown youth from Sidney Mines, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, confounded the most expert of athletic critics by winning the thirtieth annual Boston Marathon in 2 hours, 29 minutes, 40 1-5 seconds, or nearly 4 minutes under the world's record set by Clarence De Mar in 1924. He finished 1,000 yards ahead of Albin Stenroos, Finland's Olympic champion, who also beat the old record. Miles is the son of a Welsh pugilist, who emigrated to Nova Scotia when John was a babe in arms. His father supervised his training.

BRAINERD COUNTRY CLUB HAS EVINCED A STEADY GROWTH

COURSE IN GOOD SHAPE TO PLAY ON, SAYS CARE- TAKER

CLUB HOUSE AND GROUNDS TO BE OFFICIALLY OPENED ABOUT MAY 1

Brainerd golfers are again coming into their own with the unofficial opening of the Brainerd Country club golf course. After a winter of inactivity with the exception of those who improved their game on southern links, the local enthusiasts have attacked par with renewed vim and vigor.

This spring inaugurates the sixth season on the local greens. Since its incorporation in 1921 the Brainerd Country club has shown a steady growth of membership and ever increasing interest in golf.

The course is now in good shape to play on. The club house and grounds will be officially opened on or about May 1. Big things are in store both in a social way and as to tournaments with outside clubs and contests among the local members. July 18 will be the big day when the tournament committee will strive to outdo the success of last year's tourists' tournament. Other dates will be announced later.

The committees for the year have all been appointed. The membership committee has been very active with the result that 12 new members have been added to the roll. Dr. Erickson, chairman of the membership committee or Secretary R. F. Duerr, would be glad to receive names for membership to the club. The record for the local course is 35.

Opium Long in Use

Opium is obtained from the juice of the white poppy. It was known to the ancients, for its cultivation is mentioned by the famous poet Homer, who wrote of the siege of Troy, and the medicinal use of the juice of this poppy is described by the ancient Greek writer, Hippocrates.

LAKE EDWARD CLUB

Community Organization Met at Home of Mrs. Harry
Hoff Thursday

The Lake Edward Community club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Hoff, Thursday, April 15. The meeting was the second since the organization of the sewing club and judging by the interested attendance, the farm ladies are anxious to learn more about up to date practices in home making.

Both meetings have been very successful. Demonstrations and neat samples by the leaders, Mrs. Harry Hoff and Mrs. Ernest Cate have helped to make the work clear. The ladies believe that these meetings offer an opportunity that women who sew should not miss. The next meeting will be held at the same place May 13.

OBITUARY

Eugene Marius Phelps who died at his home in Brainerd, April 19, at the age of 79 years was born in Portland, Wis., on March 21, 1847.

Mr. Phelps received his education in the common schools of the country after which he taught school for a time. He came to Minnesota in 1865, settling at Pine Island, Goodhue county, where he married Mary E. Flint on Oct. 24, 1869. This faithful and devoted wife of over 56 years, together with their three daughters, Mrs. Lebbie Everest, of Minneapolis, Mrs. Belle Mack, of Clam Falls, Wis., and Marian C., of this city, survive him. A daughter, Maude died in 1919. He is also survived by ten grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

The family moved to Crow Wing in Dec. 1881 when he farmed until 21 years ago when they moved to Brainerd.

Mr. Phelps became a Christian over 30 years ago and united with the Methodist church of this city in 1895, regularly and faithfully worshipping there until last January, when he suffered a sudden illness which confined him to his bed for several weeks, but always patient, trusting in the Lord for strength. He gained slowly day by day until he was able to attend to his little home duties and able to walk out.

He attended church service on Easter Sunday and on Sunday the 17th, he walked several blocks to call on a sick friend without apparent fatigue. That night at 11 o'clock he was again taken suddenly ill and passed quietly and peacefully home at 10:15 o'clock Monday night.

Mr. Phelps was ever a kind and loving husband and father and good neighbor and a friend to all. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Methodist church, words of comfort being spoken by the Rev. M. L. Everez, and W. J. Smith. The choir sang sweetly "Abide with Me," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," two of his favorite hymns. He was laid to rest in beautiful Evergreen cemetery, under a blanket of flowers, tributes of love and true friendship.

Out of the city relatives who attended the funeral were his two daughters, Mrs. Everest and Mrs. Mack, Mrs. Charles Ackerson, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ackerson, of Pillager, and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, W. D. Everest, and Mrs. Mona Mattson, of Minneapolis. The pall bearers were: J. A. Wilson, Rev. E. A. Cook, O. C. Skauge, W. E. Paul, J. A. Shaw, and John Leak

"LET'S GET MARRIED"

Ticket Sale of Tennis Association for This Benefit Play Progressing Well

The ticket committee for the benefit movie "Let's Get Married" for funds for the proposed new tennis court at Gregory park report the sale progressing fine. The first prize to be given is the choice of either a beautiful $9.00 tennis racket, donated by the Northern Home Furnishing Co., or a three months pass to the movie houses in Brainerd. If the winner decides on the racket, the three months pass will go to the winner of second place while two and one month passes will be awarded the winners of third and fourth place.

Bruhn-Schwabe

The marriage took place at noon today at the First Congregational parsonage, of Rosamie Schwabe to Christian Bruhn, both of Brainerd, Rev. N. P. Olmsted officiating.

The couple will make a trip to the Twin Cities. On their return from their honeymoon they will take up their residence at 208 North Broadway street.

The couple are well known in Brainerd, both having lived here a number of years. Mr. Bruhn is foreman at the Northern Pacific freight depot.

Card of Thanks

We, the wife and daughters of Eugene M. Phelps, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all our friends and neighbors, for their kindly assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of our loved one.

SEWING CIRCLE

WEEK END LOOK AT COUNTY ROADS

Walter M. Murphy, County Highway
Engineer, Gives Highway Survey

FOR SUNDAY MOTORISTS

State Road No. 1 Has Frost Coming
Out, is Now Detour for Trunk
Highway No. 27

Walter M. Murphy, county highway engineer, this morning gave the following week end report on roads throughout the district, it being planned in the future to publish each Saturday a report in the Dispatch regarding the roads to accommodate Sunday motorists:

State Road No. 1, which is a detour for Trunk Highway No. 27, is in poor condition, due to the frost coming out.

State Road No. 2, known as Dewing Highway is in fairly good condition.

State Road No. 3, or the Merrifield road is in fairly good shape, but it needs rain.

State Road No. 4, from Crosby and Emily is in good condition the entire distance.

State Road No. 5, the Deerwood and Bay Lake road connecting Trunk Highway No. 18, 18 miles east of Brainerd is in good shape throughout.

State Road No. 6, known as the Inland Trail is sandy, requiring rain but is nevertheless in good shape. The white lines throughout the county are all in good shape.

Alpha Chapter

The Alpha chapter, O. E. S. will hold its regular meeting on Monday evening at which time there will be initiation of a large class, after which will follow a social time. Refreshments will be served. The committee in charge is prepared for the usual large attendance.

MRS. HODGE TO FILE 3 HEAVY DAMAGE SUITS

ASKS TOTAL OF $300,000 FROM HIGH MINNESOTA
OFFICIALS

ALSO TO SUE MEMBERS OF FAM-
ILY OF K. B. BIRKE-
LAND

St. Paul, April 24.—(UP)—Three damage suits to be filed soon by Mrs. Mayme Hodge, LaCrosse, Wis., will ask a total of $300,000 damages from high Minnesota officials and members of the family of K. B. Birke-land, in connection with whose death she was charged with murder.

William J. Quinn, St. Paul, attorney for Mrs. Hodge, announced today he is working out details of the suits. Mrs. Hodge was held in jail at LaCrosse on a fugitive from justice warrant issued on complaint of Minneapolis authorities.

The woman was believed to be the Mae Reynolds who rented the apartment where Birke-land's body was found last December. A grand jury however, failed to indict her after an investigation and she was freed.

Purveyors of symphonic jazz music, Ackerman's band, known throughout the northwest for their radio programs over WOAW of

Omaha and WAMD of Minneapolis, will make their appearance at the Park theatre Sunday, matinee and night in the Synco-Jazz Revue, the latest road show production from the F. & R. studios, consisting of 12 specialty entertainers.

SHORT SESSION PROVES ACTIVE

New York, April 24.—(UP)—The short session proved decidedly active with general strength developing through the list. Sentiment was helped considerably by favorable reports from the structural steel industry and improved retail business in mercantile lines which followed quickly with the opening of spring weather. Satisfactory progress was apparently being effected in the negotiations to arrive at a funding of the French debt to the United States.

At adjournment of the meeting of our debt funding commission in Washington, Secretary Mellon said he expected negotiations to be concluded soon, while other members regarded it likely that definite action would come next week.

Motor stocks were principally in demand with General Motors the leader on the forthcoming quarterly report and expectations of a substantial cash dividend next month.

The market closed higher.

Had Nothing to Wear

By CYNTHIA BLAIR

(Copyright.)

"BUT I can't go!" protested Phyllis Henderson, sadly, to her mother. "I haven't a thing to wear. And we certainly can't afford to buy as many new clothes as I'd need to visit Caroline. I guess I'll just have to stay home."

"Not unless you ought to," answered her mother pluckily. "You know as well as I do that things turn out the way they ought to, if you just do your part. It seems sometimes as if, if you give the world all you can, the world gives you what you need."

Phyllis gave music lessons, and she felt that, if she could just go to New York for a month, and hear a lot of music there, and perhaps talk with some big teacher about what lay nearest her heart—teaching music in a settlement somewhere—she'd be a new person.

She gave three lessons that afternoon. It was while she was teaching Milly Stewart the chromatic scale that Mrs. Stewart strolled into the room and dismissed her young daughter.

"Her hour's about up," she told Phyllis, "and I haven't seen you for so long that I do want to have a talk with you."

"I'm not a good person to talk with today," Phyllis told her. "I want awfully to go to New York, and it will take all my money for railroad fare. I haven't any clothes."

"Why—why, I wonder—Phyllis, do you remember that blue suit that my sister sent me from Paris a few months ago? I'm too stout for it now, and it's too far ahead of the styles for me, anyway. You come upstairs now and let's look at it; with just a little altering I'm sure it will suit you."

Phyllis fairly danced as she started for home. She was eager to tell her mother the news, but stopped on the way to see Mrs. Galoogly, their cleaning woman, who had been laid up with sciatica for a week.

She got the old woman's dinner for her, and sat down to chat for a moment. In the course of that chat she told her news.

"Wantin' to go to New York? And no clothes? Well, now, listen. Last month when I worked for Miss Arnold she gave me what she called a robe—all embroidered silk, from Japan—she'd spilled coffee down one side of it, and she said she hated it anyway because it'd be the wrong color for her—now, if you could make it over so that spot could come out—"

Phyllis ran gaily home with her two parcels, jubilant. A suit and a party dress—what next?

"This is the night for your reading club," her mother reminded her at dinner. "Too bad for you to go, when it's raining so hard, too—"

"Oh, I'll have to go; they'd miss me so if I didn't," Phyllis answered, and got up to get her raincoat and rubbers.

The reading club had been organized by some of the town's young girls six months before, and met at the Old Ladies' home once a week to read to a group of the old ladies who couldn't very well read for themselves. Phyllis always played the piano a bit for them, too. The other girls had all dropped out with the coming of summer, but Phyllis, realizing what a disappointment it would be to the club, had kept on going, though it meant giving up one evening a week.

That night, when the reading was over, she told them of the good fortune that had come to her that day.

"Why, Phyllis, I should think—won't you—"

But the old lady who had spoken broke off right then. However, when Phyllis had gone pattering home through the rain half an hour later, she got the other women of the group to come to her room.

The result was a telephone call for Phyllis the next morning. Would she come to the Old Ladies' home at once, please?

She went, wondering what in the world they wanted of her there. She found out when she was shown a pile of gaily-wrapped packages that lay on the table in the room where the reading club met.

"Phyllis, if you don't mind—you've been so lovely to us, and we do want to give you what we can," one of them told her. "Please accept these with our love."

"These," were such clothes as Phyllis had never seen before, brought out from old trunks and chests. Such silks as are no longer made, embroidered muslins, a beautiful embroidered shawl, an old frock trimmed with fur, and another cloth frock, which could be remade and trimmed with that same fur. Clothes enough, after Phyllis and her mother had cleverly remade them, to take her to New York!

"You see, dear, I told you that if you give the world all you can it will give you what you need," her mother told her that afternoon, as they sat up the side porch busily ripping and planning.

Phyllis laughed happily. Two weeks later she went to New York. And a month after that her mother received a long letter.

"What do you think?" she wrote. "Caroline's brother, Tom, has asked me to marry him. And I care so much for him that—well, I'm going to do it. And what do you think he told me? That the first thing he noticed about me was my lovely clothes!"

Author Takes Characters for Story from Life

"Sun-Up," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production which is coming to the Lyceum theatre Sunday for a two day run is a story of the North Carolina Mountain folk and was written by Lula Vollmer.

She spent much time among the hardy denizens of those hills and acquired an intimate knowledge of their language and habits and eccentricities.

This forms only a background against which there stands out in clear-cut carving, a pathetic story of maternal love of high if misguided purpose and a yielding to influence which comes to many when a crisis appears, to guide us along the right path.

END UNION PAIN FOREVER

No Need to Suffer Another Day
Those Agonizing Torturing Pains

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to reduce inflamed, swollen toe joints and get them down to normal and that is to apply Moone's Emerald Oil night and morning and people who suffer from such enlargements would be wise to reduce them before they reach a more or less chronic stage.

Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.

Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Sold by all druggists. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio
